I. Background
Volunteer Florida is the Governor’s lead agency for volunteerism and national service in Florida, administering more than $31.7 million in federal, state, and local funding to deliver high-impact national service and volunteer programs in Florida. Volunteer Florida promotes and encourages volunteerism to meet critical needs across the state. Volunteer Florida also serves as Florida’s lead agency for volunteers and donations before, during, and after disasters. For more information, visit: www.volunteerflorida.org.

II. Contract/Grant Period
Rural Community Assets Fund (RCAF) Proposals are due to Volunteer Florida on Wednesday, June 21, 2017 at 5 p.m. EST. The contract period begins on the date of contract execution and ends June 30, 2018. Volunteer Florida reserves the right to allocate funds based on internal programmatic and fiscal review. Grant award distribution is contingent upon funding availability.

III. Grant Overview
Florida’s rural communities are uniquely resilient, but also face specific challenges related to adequate educational resources, necessary transportation and sustainable employment. Household income lags behind that of metropolitan areas, and poverty rates are significantly higher as identified in the following statistics:

- According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Economic Research Service (ERS), the average per-capita income for Florida residents in 2013 was $41,497. Per-capital income in rural counties was $30,844.¹
- Estimates from 2013 indicate a poverty rate of 16.8% in urban areas of the state, compared with 24.3% for rural areas.²
- The USDA’s report notes 13.6% of the population in urban areas have not completed high school, compared to 22.3% in rural areas.³

Federal, state and local governments, as well as the private and nonprofit sectors continue to develop strategies to strengthen these communities.

Floridians can capitalize on an additional resource by leveraging existing human capital to meet essential local needs through volunteering.

Volunteer Florida’s Rural Community Assets Fund (RCAF) will allow grantees to recruit, equip and mobilize volunteers in eligible rural areas across the state to address the acute educational needs of underserved children and youth.

Volunteer Florida will distribute a total of $100,000 in funding and training support for grantee participation in the FY2017-2018 Rural Community Assets Fund program. Respondents may request between $5,000 and $10,000 and must provide a 25% cash or in-kind match.

Grantees will receive comprehensive training, funding for program enhancements and ongoing technical assistance, and coaching to establish or strengthen existing volunteer programs.

The Request for Proposals, Appendices and other relevant RCAF information are available online: http://www.volunteerflorida.org/grants.

IV. Eligibility

Respondents may be public or private nonprofit organizations, including faith-based and other community organizations; institutions of higher education; government entities (e.g., states, cities, counties); labor organizations; partnerships and consortia; or Indian Tribes.

Respondents must have experience meeting educational needs for underserved children or youth in early childhood education settings or the K-12 education system. This experience need not be in an eligible rural area, but programming funded through RCAF must occur in an eligible rural area. Respondents must currently have or plan to have a service location in, or volunteers deployed to, an eligible rural area.
RCAF funding must only be used to support services for underserved children and youth residing in eligible rural areas.

It is not necessary that the organization as a whole provide educational programming exclusively. Additionally, respondents are not required to serve all education levels. Organizations may also provide educational programming to children and youth who have left school, if the intent is to move students toward high school graduation or readiness for postsecondary education without remediation.

Counties and communities eligible for RCAF funding must meet either the definition of “rural community” outlined in F.S. 288.0656, or as defined by the U.S. Department of Agriculture’s Rural-Urban Continuum Codes 3-9. See Appendix A- Eligible Counties and Municipalities: http://www.volunteerflorida.org/grants.
