Volunteer Generation Fund

FY 2017-2018

Technical Assistance Call
Volunteer Florida

Volunteer Florida is the Governor’s lead agency for volunteerism and national service in Florida, administering more than $32 million in federal, state, and local funding to deliver high-impact national service and volunteer programs in Florida.

Volunteer Florida promotes and encourages volunteerism to meet critical needs across the state. Volunteer Florida also serves as Florida’s lead agency for volunteers and donations before, during, and after disasters.
Volunteer Generation Fund (VGF)

Volunteer Florida administers the Volunteer Generation Fund (VGF), an initiative of the Corporation for National & Community Service (CNCS) that focuses investment on volunteer management practices that increase volunteer recruitment and retention.

Volunteer Florida seeks to support local organizations to increase their capacity to recruit, manage, support and retain skills-based volunteers to serve in high-value volunteer assignments.

Grant period is a twelve-month period, beginning October 2, 2017 and ending September 30, 2018.

Volunteer Florida will make available up to $286,000 to a maximum of twenty-two (22) sub grantees serving the needs of Floridians, each receiving $13,000 in grant funding and training support.
Skills-based volunteering is a strategic type of volunteerism that expands the impact of community organizations by leveraging professionals’ skills. From accountants to IT and management consultants, skills-based volunteers strengthen the operations of nonprofits while developing the volunteers’ leadership capabilities.

In 2016, Volunteer Florida invested $212,500 in Volunteer Generation Fund grants to 20 non-profits.

These 20 non-profits recruited 13,507 skills-based volunteers who served 166,080 hours.

A value of $3,667,046
