RURAL COMMUNITY ASSETS FUND

Volunteer Florida’s Rural Community Assets Fund (RCAF) will allow grantees to:

recruit, equip and mobilize volunteers in eligible rural areas across the state to address the acute educational needs of underserved children and youth.

• Up to $100,000 total in funding and training support for grantee participation in the FY2018-19 RCAF program
• Respondents may request between $5,000 and $10,000
• Must provide a 100% cash or in-kind match.

Grantees will receive comprehensive training, funding for program enhancements and ongoing technical assistance, and coaching to establish or strengthen existing volunteer programs.

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY

Your organization must be one of the following to be eligible: a public or private nonprofit organization, including faith- or other community-based; institution of higher education; government entity within a state or territory (city, county); labor organization; partnership or consortia; Indian Tribe.

- 501(c)3

APPLICANT ELIGIBILITY

Respondents must have experience meeting educational needs for underserved children or youth in early childhood education settings or the K-12 education system.

This experience need not be in an eligible rural area, but programming funded through RCAF must occur in an eligible rural area.

Respondents must currently have or plan to have a service location in, or volunteers deployed to, an eligible rural area.

VOLUNTEER MANAGEMENT PRACTICES

“Volunteers bring tremendous value to nonprofits that plan for and manage them effectively.”

Successful applicants will effectively engage and track volunteers and increase organizational volunteer management practices. Applicants must develop practices in at least two of eight areas or functions for effectively managing volunteers as defined in the report Volunteering Reinvented: Human Capital Solutions for the Nonprofit Sector.

VOLUNTEER MANAGEMENT FUNCTIONS

Market Research and Community Needs Assessments
Strategic Planning to Maximize Volunteer Impact
Recruiting and Marketing to Prospective Volunteers
Interviewing, Screening, and Selecting Volunteers
Orienting and Training Volunteers
Ongoing Supervision and Management
Recognition and Volunteer Development
Measuring Outcomes and Evaluating the Process

FROM GRANTEES

“... [We can now] reach families in outlying counties and bring them together with mentors that live closer to them so that they can get together on a more consistent basis.”

“The feedback from the volunteers was that they felt more prepared this time around [to mentor] and couldn’t wait to get started with the new group of students. The new group of students are also providing very positive feedback.”

“As a result of RCAF funding [we] were able to add 7 second grade classrooms this year and recruit and train additional high school volunteers needed to teach our program. In addition, RCAF funding covered the cost of an additional training session for the high school volunteers.”

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

Special consideration will be given to applicants providing educational programming centered on college preparation and on-time graduation in one of these areas:

- Academic Achievement: Mentoring, tutoring, test preparation or study skills.
- Financial Management: College affordability, financial aid opportunities or financial literacy skills.
- Advising: Career exploration and planning, professional development or range of post-secondary options.
PERFORMANCE MEASURES

1) Program Capacity:
   Grantees will show an increase in capacity in at least two areas over the course of the contract period:
   • Number of children or youth served
   • Number of volunteers recruited and/or retained
   • Types of services offered to children or youth
   • Number of services provided per children or youth

PERFORMANCE MEASURES

2) Proficiency in Volunteer Management Practices:
   Grantees will:
   • Show an increase in effective volunteer management practices as measured by the pre/post assessment in Appendix B (1 of 3) - Reporting Requirements: http://www.volunteerflorida.org/grants.
   • Establish or update a volunteer management plan, based on the volunteer management practices the grantee has identified to develop.
BUDGET INFORMATION

Funds awarded to grantees are intended to be used for capacity building activities to develop or strengthen volunteer programs.

Respondents may request a minimum of $5,000 up to a maximum of $10,000 in funding. Respondents must provide a 100% cash or in-kind match.

The full grant amount and match should be allocated to the following budget categories:

- Personnel Expenses, Personnel Fringe Benefits, Project Staff Travel*, Equipment, Supplies, Contractual and Consultant Services, Training, Other

*Travel and lodging for the RCAF mandatory Training can be included.

BUDGET INFORMATION

Grantees are required to provide a 100% in-kind or cash match.

In-kind: Non-cash contributions from third-parties, including expert advice, equipment, property, donated goods, materials, labor, supplies, services, training, etc.

In-kind contributions must directly benefit and specifically connect to the program for which the respondent will use RCAF funds.

In other words, listed in-kind match funds must directly correspond to achieving your program objectives.

Match contributions must be verifiable.

If text is written beyond the end of the prompt text box (not visible), reviewers WILL NOT SCROLL WITHIN THE BOX TO VIEW ADDITIONAL TEXT.

PROPOSAL SUBMISSION

NOTE for Proposal Narrative: If text is written beyond the end of the prompt text box (not visible), reviewers WILL NOT SCROLL WITHIN THE BOX TO VIEW ADDITIONAL TEXT. Respondents must use only the visible space for each prompt text box. Do NOT change formatting or the sizing of text boxes.

The budget narrative component of the Proposal Narrative MUST directly correspond to the Budget Worksheet.

Your proposed budget should be sufficient to allow you to perform the tasks described in the Proposal Narrative.

Your budget narrative should provide a full explanation of costs including their purpose, justification, and the basis of your calculation.
SUBMISSIONS

Read ALL Instructions (not all details are covered in this presentation).

Thoroughly respond to ALL prompts (some information may apply to more than one prompt, which is fine).

Use clear, concise language.

REVIEW your proposal. Ask another individual in your organization to review it!

Submit both of the following documents simultaneously.
Proposal Budget Worksheet = Microsoft Excel format
Proposal Narrative = Microsoft Excel format

SUBMISSIONS

Once you have submitted your full proposal, you will receive an e-mail from Volunteer Florida within one (1) business day confirming receipt.

If you do not receive e-mail confirmation within one (1) business day, your proposal was not submitted properly.

Submit at least 24 hours before deadline to ensure receipt.
