

Volunteer Generation Fund

VOLUNTEER GENERATION FUND

Fiscal Year 2022-2023

Request for Proposals

Request for Proposals: Volunteer Generation Fund FY 2022-2023

Due: Friday, August 12, 2022, by 5:00pm EDT

Proposals must be submitted to Volunteer Florida through the Blackbaud Grantmaking online portal no later than Friday, August 12, 2022, at 5:00pm EDT. Proposals submitted after this deadline will not be considered for funding. Volunteer Florida does not require organizations to submit a notice of intent to respond. Award of all sub-grantee funding as described herein is contingent upon the award by AmeriCorps of the full amount of Volunteer Generation Fund program funding requested by Volunteer Florida. For the 2022-2023 contract year, match is required. Please see below for the further details regarding match.

1. Background

Volunteer Florida is the Governor's lead agency for volunteerism and national service in Florida, administering more than $24 million in federal, state, and local funding to deliver high-impact national service and volunteer programs in Florida. Volunteer Florida promotes and encourages volunteerism to meet critical needs across the state. Volunteer Florida also serves as Florida's lead agency for volunteers and donations before, during, and after disasters. For more information, visit: www.volunteerflorida.org.

2. Grant Period

Volunteer Generation Fund proposals must be submitted to Volunteer Florida in the Blackbaud Grantmaking online portal by Friday, August 12, 2022, at 5:00pm EDT. The grant period is a twelve-month period, beginning October 1, 2022, and ending September 30, 2023. Volunteer Florida reserves the right to allocate funds based on internal programmatic and fiscal review and availability of funding. The contract period will be effective from October 1, 2022, through September 30, 2023.

3. Grant Overview

Volunteer Florida administers the Volunteer Generation Fund (VGF), an initiative of AmeriCorps that focuses investment on volunteer management practices that increase volunteer recruitment and retention. Volunteer Florida seeks to support local organizations to increase their capacity to recruit, manage, support, and retain skills-based volunteers to serve in high-value volunteer assignments.

In anticipation of federal funding for the VGF program for FY 2022- 2023, Volunteer Florida will make available up to $520,000 for an estimated twenty-four (24) organizations serving the needs of Floridians. New applicant organizations and organizations in their second year of funding will be eligible to receive $20,000 in grant funding. Organizations entering their third year of VGF funding will be eligible to receive $24,000 in grant funding. All subgrantees will receive additional training support associated with the VGF program. Subgrants will be awarded only in the amounts listed. New organizations, organizations entering their second year, and organizations entering their third year of funding should request $20,000 or $24,000, respectively.

Volunteer Florida's VGF program will provide sub-grants to an estimate of twenty-four (24) organizations serving the needs of Floridians, and will also provide each organization with relevant, comprehensive training with an emphasis on increasing the number of skills-based volunteers, service hours, and types of activities. Funding will strengthen the capacity of volunteer organizations to identify resources, challenges, and areas of need. Subgrantees will receive comprehensive training, funding for program enhancements and ongoing technical assistance, and coaching to establish or strengthen a skills-based volunteer program.

4. Eligibility

Eligible entities must be public or private nonprofit organizations, including faith based and other community organizations; institutions of higher education; governmental entities within states or territories (e.g., cities, counties); labor organizations; partnerships and consortia; or Indian Tribes. The FY 2022-2023 VGF program is intended to build capacity that will result in sustainable skills-based volunteer programs.

- A. Eligible entities must mobilize people and resources to deliver creative solutions to community problems through programs and services that encompass the following:
 - 1. Recognize that all volunteers have skills and talents to share;
 - 2. Connect people with opportunities to serve;
 - 3. Promote volunteering at all levels and ages; and
 - 4. Build or establish partnerships and collaboration among organizations in the community.

- B. The Volunteer Generation Fund cannot be used as an expansion of existing federally funded national service programs such as AmeriCorps or AmeriCorps Senior.
- C. Organizations receiving VGF program funds for more than three (3) years are not eligible for FY 2022-2023 VGF funding.
- D. Organizations receiving the following Volunteer Florida grants are not eligible for the FY 2022-2023 VGF funding: AmeriCorps, Florida Disaster Fund and Community Emergency Response Team (CERT).

5. Funding Priorities

Volunteer Florida is soliciting proposals from Florida organizations that use volunteers to provide services in the following six (6) AmeriCorps priority areas: 1) Disaster Services, 2) Economic Opportunity, 3) Education, 4) Environmental Stewardship, 5) Healthy Futures, 6) Veterans and Military Families.

- A. Proposals including one of the priority areas listed below will receive a three (3) point scoring priority.
 - 1. Rural Communities - organizations that demonstrate measurable impact and primarily serve rural communities with limited resources and organizational infrastructure.
 - 2. Economic Opportunities - Increasing economic opportunities for communities by preparing people for the workforce.
 - 3. Certification of completion of Volunteer Florida's Grant Writing Training.
- B. To receive priority consideration, applicants must show that the priority area is a significant part of the program focus and intended outcomes, and must include a high-quality program design. Applicants priority consideration does not guarantee funding.
- C. Organizations including rural communities or economic opportunities/workforce priority areas are not required to have a prescribed number of skills-based volunteers recruited or hours served for those service areas. Volunteers recruited for the priority area programs can be a subset of overall volunteers recruited.

D. Volunteer Florida will encourage geographic diversity by actively seeking proposals from all seven (7) regions of the state, as defined by the Florida Division of Emergency Management.

6. Fatal Criteria

Proposals will not be reviewed for funding unless ALL of the following criteria are met:

- The proposal is submitted in the Blackbaud Grantmaking online portal and received by Volunteer Florida no later than Friday, August 12, 2022, by 5:00pm EDT. Note: Proposals will not be accepted via email or hard copy.
- The proposal includes all of the following performance measures:
 1. 400 skills-based volunteers recruited
 2. 3,000 hours served by skills-based volunteers
 3. Participation in a pre-/post-test assessment measuring organizational implementation of effective volunteer management practices.
- The proposal requests the allowable sub-grant amount of $20,000 (new or second year application) or $24,000 (third year application.)
- The proposal is inclusive of the Volunteer Florida budget template.
- The proposal provides 100% match of $20,000 (new or second year application) or $24,000 (third year application.)

7. Funding Criteria

A. Skills-based Volunteering

Skills-based volunteering focuses on leveraging the direct professional expertise of volunteers to deliver professional services at a caliber an organization would otherwise have to pay for on the market.

Taproot Foundation “Understanding the Spectrum of Skills-Based Volunteering”

<https://taprootfoundation.org/understanding-spectrum-skills-based-volunteering/>

There are many types of skills-based volunteering, including but not limited to: tutoring, mentoring, job skill training, board placement, IT assistance, marketing support, and event coordination.

B. Volunteer Management Practices

Successful subgrantees will effectively engage and track skills-based volunteers and increase organizational volunteer management practices during the grant year. Each management practice should support at least one of the functions for effectively managing volunteers as defined in the report “Volunteering Reinvented: Human Capital Solutions for the Nonprofit Sector” listed below.

1. Market Research and Community Needs Assessments
2. Strategic Planning to Maximize Volunteer Impact
3. Recruiting and Marketing to Prospective Volunteers
4. Interviewing, Screening, and Selecting Volunteers
5. Orienting and Training Volunteers
6. Ongoing Supervision and Management
7. Recognition and Volunteer Development
8. Measuring Outcomes and Evaluating the Process

8. Performance Measures

Successful applicants MUST opt in to the following performance measures:

- A. Number of skills-based volunteers recruited by organizations or participants: Target 400
- B. Number of hours skills-based volunteers will serve: Target 3,000
- C. A pre-/post-test assessment measuring organizational implementation of effective volunteer management practices.

Note: Successful subgrantees will track number of volunteers and hours served and report to Volunteer Florida the following volunteer demographics as applicable: name; relevant demographic information, including location of residence (city), method of recruitment, participation in orientation and/or training activities, planned and actual role; assignment(s) or activities; start and end dates of service.

9. Budget

Funds awarded to subgrantees are intended to be used for capacity building activities to develop or strengthen skills-based volunteer programs. Grants will be cost reimbursement only, where costs are reimbursed once they are paid and will require supporting documentation such as but not limited to timesheets, payroll documentation, invoices, and proof of payments. The same documentation will also be required to document the match.

Applicants may include the following budget categories only:

- A. Personnel Salaries and Fringe Benefit Expenses – Funds may be used to hire new personnel or support existing personnel for up to two (2) personnel positions to develop or augment a skills-based volunteer program (capacity building).
 - a Employer paid fringe benefits can include: FICA, health insurance, workers compensation, retirement, life insurance, dental insurance, and unemployment.

- B. Database Software – Funds may be used for software which is directly related to the recruitment, support, management, and retention of skills-based volunteers and tracking volunteer demographics and activities (capacity building through infrastructure).
 - a These funds do not include the purchase of computers, tablets, or other equipment to implement database software.

All applicants are required to submit their most recent audit report including the management letter and the schedule of findings and questioned costs, if applicable. Organizations without an audit, please upload Statements of Financial Position, and Statements of Revenues and Expenditures for your last two fiscal years.

Grantees are required to provide a 100% in-kind and/or cash match of $20,000 (new or second year applications) or $24,000 (third year applications) and must list the sources in the budget narrative.

The budget should use the approved Volunteer Florida budget template found on Volunteer Florida's website: <http://www.volunteerflorida.org/grants/availablegrants/>

10. Technical Assistance and Training

The VGF subgrantees (one program and one finance staff member) will be required to attend a comprehensive training to establish or strengthen a skills-based volunteer program. In addition, subgrantees will receive ongoing technical assistance and coaching. The Volunteer Generation Fund sub-grantee training is anticipated to be in person during the week of November 14-16, 2022.

11. Reporting

Successful subgrantees will report to Volunteer Florida on Volunteer Generation Fund Performance Measures as specified herein, including number of volunteers engaged, hours served, volunteer demographics, and the increase of organizational effective volunteer management practices.

12. Background Checks

Successful subgrantees will be required to complete an online training through AmeriCorps to appropriately handle all background checks.

Subgrantees are required to comply with the AmeriCorps's Criminal History Check Rule. The requirement applies to Volunteer Generation Fund (VGF) grantee staff who are considered "covered" under the NSCHC definitions (grantee or match share). All grantee staff that are covered individuals will have their background checks initiated on or before their first day of work. In general, this includes a National Sex Offender Registry check, State of Residency and a FBI fingerprint based check. Volunteer Florida will be responsible for initiating, completing and considering all checks through TrueScreen and Fieldprint.
